The completed request form will be routed to the EXOGEN Product Manager for review. If all requirements are met, the EXOGEN Product Manager will route the contract and initial order form to the customer via DocuSign.

The requestor will receive a DocuSign email notification indicating that copy has been sent to the customer.

By clicking the Review Document link, the requestor can verify whether the customer has populated the top portion of the document.

The requestor can scroll down to see if the AVP has dated and signed the document. Also, they can chose "View History" under the "Other Actions" menu to see who has completed their part.
