

TO TRULY
MOVE FORWARD
REQUIRES INNOVATION

We're excited to sponsor the NIAF's annual Fall Gala, particularly because the evening's sole honoree, to be awarded the 2020 Leonardo da Vinci Award for Leadership in Health, is none other than Dr. Anthony S. Fauci.

Dr. Fauci is an unwavering champion of medical innovation at a time of great global need. He's certainly an inspiration to us! In our work at Bioventus, we focus every day on developing Innovations for Active Healing to help patients live life to the fullest. Congratulations, Dr. Fauci!
